Changes to Florida Law

6-WEEK ABORTION BAN

The 6-week abortion ban is now in effect. Patients past 6 weeks of pregnancy can no longer receive an abortion in Florida unless they meet a statutory exception. The law provides exceptions for fatal fetal diagnosis, to save the life of the pregnant person, or for victims of rape, incest, or human trafficking (with proper documentation).

24-HOUR MANDATORY DELAY

As of March 31, 2022, we are required by law schedule two appointments for your abortion at least 24 hours apart. Your first appointment will include an ultrasound, labs, and an in-person meeting with a physician to discuss the abortion procedure. Education and your abortion procedure will be done during your second appointment.

Teens Seeking Abortion Care

Florida state law requires most young people under 18 to involve a parent or legal guardian in their decision.
